

I urge the FCC to instruct Sinclair Broadcasting either to pull the anti-Kerry documentary, "Stolen Honor" from its stations, or to follow it with the Kerry documentary "Going Upriver". It is untenable that a private corporation that uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, would so blatantly blanket their stations with a one-sided political message.